Sixty-seventh session
Agenda item 24

Eradication of poverty and other development issues

Report of the Second Committee*

Rapporteur: Ms. Aida Hodžić (Bosnia and Herzegovina)

I. Introduction

1. At its 2nd plenary meeting, on 21 September 2012, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its sixty-seventh session the item entitled:

"Eradication of poverty and other development issues:

"(a) Implementation of the Second United Nations Decade for the Eradication of Poverty (2008-2017);

"(b) Industrial development cooperation" and to allocate it to the Second Committee.

2. The Second Committee held a substantive debate on the item at its 20th, 21st and 27th meetings, on 5 and 12 November 2012. An account of the Committee's discussion of the item is contained in the relevant summary records (A/C.2/67/SR.20, 21 and 27). Attention is also drawn to the general debate held by the Committee at its 2nd to 6th meetings, from 8 to 10 October (see A/C.2/67/SR.2-6). Action was taken on the item at the 29th and 32nd meetings, on 15 and 30 November (see A/C.2/67/SR.29 and 32). An account of the Committee's further consideration of the item is given in the addenda to the present report.

3. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it the following documents:

* The report of the Committee on this item is being issued in three parts, under the symbol A/67/441 and Add.1-2.

Report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the Second United Nations Decade for the Eradication of Poverty (2008-2017) (A/67/180)

Item 24 (b)
Industrial development cooperation

Note by the Secretary-General transmitting the report of the Director General of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization on industrial development cooperation (A/67/223)

4. At the 20th meeting, on 5 November, introductory statements were made by the Director of the Division for Social Policy and Development of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs (under sub-item (a)); the Director of the New York Office and Representative of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (under sub-item (b)); and the Deputy Special Representative of the World Tourism Organization (under item 24) (see A/C.2/67/SR.20).

II. Consideration of draft resolutions A/C.2/67/L.30 and Rev.1

5. At the 29th meeting, on 15 November, the representative of Morocco, on behalf of Belarus, Djibouti, the Dominican Republic, Gabon, Guyana, Honduras, Iraq, Jordan, Libya, Mexico, Morocco, Oman, South Africa, Turkey and Uruguay, subsequently joined by Bosnia and Herzegovina, Costa Rica, Madagascar and Sri Lanka, introduced a draft resolution entitled "Promotion of ecotourism for poverty eradication and environment protection" (A/C.2/67/L.30), which read:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling the 2005 World Summit Outcome,

"Recalling also the United Nations Millennium Declaration, the Monterrey Consensus of the International Conference on Financing for Development, the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development, the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development ('Johannesburg Plan of Implementation'), the Doha Declaration on Financing for Development: outcome document of the Follow-up International Conference on Financing for Development to Review the Implementation of the Monterrey Consensus, the Outcome of the Conference on the World Financial and Economic Crisis and Its Impact on Development, the outcome document of the high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly on the Millennium Development Goals, and the outcome document of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, entitled 'The future we want',

"Recalling further its resolution 53/200 of 15 December 1998 entitled 'Proclamation of 2002 as the International Year of Ecotourism',

"Recalling its resolution 65/173 of 20 December 2010 entitled 'Promotion of ecotourism for poverty eradication and environment protection',

"Stressing that poverty is a multifaceted problem that requires a multifaceted and integrated approach in addressing its economic, political, social, environmental and institutional dimensions at all levels,

"Stressing also that ecotourism can, within the framework of sustainable tourism, contribute to the fight against poverty, the protection of the environment and the promotion of sustainable development,

"Welcoming the efforts of the World Tourism Organization, the United Nations Environment Programme, the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the Convention on Biological Diversity to promote ecotourism and sustainable tourism worldwide,

"Welcoming also the efforts of the Marrakech Process on sustainable consumption and production, and in particular its task force on sustainable tourism development, as a cross-sectoral example of more sustainable consumption and production practices,

"Noting the initiatives launched and the events organized at the subregional, regional and international levels in the field of ecotourism and sustainable development,

"1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General of the World Tourism Organization;

"2. Recognizes that the development of ecotourism, within the framework of sustainable tourism, can have a positive impact on income generation, job creation and education, and thus on the fight against poverty and hunger, and can contribute directly to achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals;

"3. Also recognizes the potential of ecotourism to reduce poverty by improving individual livelihoods in local communities and to generate resources for community development projects;

"4. Emphasizes the need to maximize the economic, social and environmental benefits stemming from ecotourism activities in all countries, particularly developing countries, including African countries, the least developed countries and small island developing States;

"5. Also emphasizes that ecotourism can contribute to sustainable development, in particular environment protection, and improve the well-being of local and indigenous communities;

"6. Recognizes that ecotourism creates significant opportunities for the conservation, protection and sustainable use of natural areas by encouraging local and indigenous communities in host countries and tourists alike to preserve and respect the natural and cultural heritage;

"7. Underlines, in this regard, the importance of establishing, at the national level and in accordance with national priorities, appropriate policies, guidelines and regulations for promoting and supporting ecotourism and minimizing its potential negative impact;

"8. Invites Governments, international organizations and other relevant institutions to highlight and support best practices in relation to the implementation of relevant policies, guidelines and regulations in the ecotourism sector;

"9. Encourages Member States to promote investment in ecotourism, in accordance with their national legislation, which may include creating small- and medium-sized enterprises and facilitating access to finance, including through microcredit initiatives for the poor, local and indigenous communities in areas with high ecotourism potential, including rural areas;

"10. Encourages Governments and other public and private stakeholders to cooperate in supporting local and indigenous communities to participate in ecotourism activities, including through provision of training and support for market and product development;

"11. Underlines the importance of conducting an environmental impact assessment, in accordance with national legislation, for the development of ecotourism opportunities;

"12. Stresses that indigenous cultures, traditions and knowledge, in all their aspects, are to be fully considered, respected and promoted in ecotourism policy development, and underlines the importance of promoting the full participation and involvement of local and indigenous communities in decisions that affect them and of integrating indigenous and local knowledge, heritage and values in ecotourism initiatives, as appropriate;

"13. Emphasizes the need for effective measures in the context of ecotourism initiatives to ensure the full empowerment of women, including equal participation of women and men at all levels and in decision-making processes in all areas;

"14. Calls upon the United Nations system, in the context of the global campaign for the Millennium Development Goals, to promote ecotourism as an instrument that can contribute to achieving those Goals, in particular the Goals of eradicating extreme poverty and of ensuring environmental sustainability, and to support the efforts and policies of developing countries in this field;

"15. Encourages the regional and international financial institutions to provide adequate support to programmes and projects related to ecotourism, taking into account the economic and environmental benefits of such activities;

"16. Invites relevant specialized agencies, United Nations bodies and other organizations to provide technical assistance to Governments, as appropriate, in strengthening legislative or policy frameworks for ecotourism and their implementation in the context of sustainable tourism;

"17. Also invites relevant stakeholders to assist, in the context of sustainable tourism, in capacity-building, developing specific guidelines and awareness-raising materials, and providing training for people working in the ecotourism sector, such as language training and training in specific skills in tourism services;

"18. Recognizes the role of North-South cooperation in promoting ecotourism as a means to achieve economic growth, to reduce inequalities and to improve living standards in developing countries, and also recognizes that South-South and triangular cooperation, as complements to North-South cooperation, have potential for promoting ecotourism;

"19. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session, in collaboration with the World Tourism Organization and other relevant United Nations agencies and programmes, a report on the implementation of the present resolution, including recommendations on ways and means to promote ecotourism as a tool for fighting poverty and promoting sustainable development."

6. At its 32nd meeting, on 30 November, the Committee had before it a revised draft resolution entitled "Promotion of ecotourism for poverty eradication and environment protection" (A/C.2/67/L.30/Rev.1), submitted by Afghanistan, Andorra, Angola, Armenia, Australia, Austria, the Bahamas, Bahrain, Belarus, Belgium, Benin, Bhutan, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Chile, Costa Rica, Croatia, Cuba, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Djibouti, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, El Salvador, Estonia, Finland, France, Gabon, Georgia, Germany, Greece, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Kuwait, Latvia, Lebanon, Libya, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Madagascar, Malaysia, Malta, Mexico, Monaco, Montenegro, Morocco, Nepal, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Oman, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Saudi Arabia, Seychelles, Slovakia, Slovenia, Solomon Islands, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Tajikistan, Thailand, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Uruguay and Yemen. Subsequently, Burkina Faso, Ethiopia, Guatemala, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Liberia, Micronesia (Federated States of), Mongolia, the Niger and the Republic of Moldova joined in sponsoring the draft resolution.

7. At the same meeting, the Committee was informed that the revised draft resolution had no programme budget implications.

8. Also at the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/67/L.30/Rev.1 (see para. 11).

9. After the adoption of the draft resolution, a statement was made by the representative of Morocco (see A/C.2/67/SR.32).

10. A statement was also made by the representative of the World Tourism Organization (see A/C.2/67/SR.32).

III. Recommendation of the Second Committee

11. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

ecotourism, within the framework of sustainable tourism, and minimizing its potential negative impact;

8. Invites Governments, international organizations, other relevant institutions and other stakeholders, as appropriate, to highlight and support best practices in relation to the implementation of relevant policies, guidelines and regulations in the ecotourism sector and to implement and disseminate existing guidelines;

9. Encourages Governments at all levels to use ecotourism, within the framework of sustainable tourism, as a tool to support poverty alleviation, environmental protection and/or biodiversity conservation, and to base the tourism components on clear evidence of market demand and a sound economic base;

10. Encourages Member States to promote investment in ecotourism, in accordance with their national legislation, which may include creating small- and medium-sized enterprises, promoting cooperatives and facilitating access to finance through inclusive financial services, including microcredit initiatives for the poor, local and indigenous communities in areas with high ecotourism potential, including rural areas;

11. Underlines the importance of conducting an environmental impact assessment, in accordance with national legislation, for the development of ecotourism opportunities;

12. Stresses that indigenous cultures, traditions and knowledge, in all their aspects, are to be fully considered, respected and promoted in ecotourism policy development, within the framework of sustainable tourism, and underlines the importance of promoting the full and early participation and involvement of local and indigenous communities in decisions that affect them and of integrating indigenous and local knowledge, heritage and values in any such ecotourism initiatives, as appropriate;

13. Emphasizes the need for effective measures in the context of ecotourism initiatives to ensure the full empowerment of women, including equal participation of women and men at all levels and in decision-making processes in all areas;

14. Calls upon the United Nations system, in the context of the global campaign for the Millennium Development Goals, to promote ecotourism, within the framework of sustainable tourism, as an instrument that can contribute to achieving those Goals, in particular the Goals of eradicating extreme poverty and of ensuring environmental sustainability, and to support the efforts and policies of developing countries in this field;

15. Encourages the regional and international financial institutions to provide adequate support to programmes and projects related to ecotourism, taking into account the economic, social, cultural and environmental benefits of such activities;

16. Invites relevant specialized agencies, in particular the World Tourism Organization, United Nations bodies and other organizations, to provide technical assistance to Governments, upon request, to assist, as appropriate, in strengthening legislative or policy frameworks for ecotourism and their implementation in the context of sustainable tourism, including those for environmental protection and the conservation of natural and cultural heritage;

17. Invites all stakeholders to cooperate in supporting, as appropriate, local and indigenous community participation in ecotourism activities;

18. Invites the public and private sectors and relevant stakeholders to provide, upon request, assistance for capacity-building, developing specific guidelines and awareness-raising materials and training for people involved in the ecotourism sector, such as language training and training in specific skills in tourism services, as well as to develop or strengthen partnerships, especially in protected areas, within the framework of sustainable tourism;

19. Recognizes the role of North-South cooperation in promoting ecotourism as a means to achieve economic growth, to reduce inequalities and to improve living standards in developing countries, and also recognizes that South-South and triangular cooperation, as complements to North-South cooperation, have potential for promoting ecotourism;

20. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session, in collaboration with the World Tourism Organization and other relevant United Nations agencies and programmes, a report on the implementation of the present resolution, including recommendations on ways and means to promote ecotourism as a tool for fighting poverty and promoting sustainable development, taking into account relevant reports prepared by the World Tourism Organization in this field.
